

From Ancient Greece to the modern curriculum: where does philosophy fit?

SOPHIA Network Meeting
2nd and 3rd September 2016

Address: XENIA, 16, Sofokli Venizelou str, 74100 Rethymno

Networking with European practitioners

Linking philosophy to science and other areas of the curriculum

Posters (find out what others are up to in Europe)

Seminars and discussion around papers

Activities for thinking to use in the classroom

Workshops linked to Ancient Greek philosophy and sessions to use in the classroom

Friday 2nd September		Saturday 3rd September
09.30-10.00	Welcome Peter Worley SOPHIA President (Eng)	09.45 - 11.00	Laure Ducasse Kamouris - P4C in Literature (Fr)
10.00 -11.30	Epictetus in the Classroom - J.Bladimir Garcia (USA)	11.00 - 11.30	Networking Break
11.30 - 12.00	Networking Break	11.30 - 13.00	The If Odyssey - Peter Worley (Eng)
12.00 - 13.00	Pandora's Box - Andy West (Eng)	13.00 - 14.30	Lunch at local taverna
13.00-14.30	Lunch at local taverna, networking	14.30 - 15.30	From Anaximander to Einstein - Cristina Rossie (It)
14.30 - 15.00	Poster Session	15.30 - 16.00	Networking Break
15.00 - 16.30	PhiloZoo - Eef Cornelissen & Jelle Deschrijver (Bel)	16.00 - 17.00	Philosophy in the Greek Kindergarten - Stelios Gadris (Gr)
16.30 - 17.00	Networking Break	17.00 - 17.15	Quick Break
17.00 - 17.30	Socrates in Prison - Mary Bovill (Sco)	17.15 - 18.45	Group Meta-session: reflections on the weekend
17.30 - 19.00	Group Meta-session: reflections on the day
19.00	End	19.30	Joint Dinner